Pounding the Pulpit with Pastor Jack Maddox

A New Covenant Community

During our week of revival services, I was struck by Blake White's message on the New Covenant Community, the church. (If you missed it you can listen to it on our web site) In this message drawn from Acts 2, he makes the point that the church should at the very least have some basic similarities to what we see in Acts 2 due to the New Covenant nature of our makeup. We have a New Covenant "DNA" if you will. In the new creation, there is the truth that the church is made up of "New Creatures" We are a people who should emulate in our lives together with the traits of the New Covenant reality. In his message, he laid out some of these characteristics. Let's look at a few of them.

We should be a people DEVOTED to the WORD. The Bible says in Acts 2: 42 that the believers were devoted to the teaching and preaching of the word. This is a devotion to biblical exposition. They recognized that there was no New Covenant community without the very word which reveals the source and the nature of the New Covenant.

They were also a people DEVOTED to the breaking of bread and fellowship. (vs 42,46) They shared their lives together. They shared their meals, and their fellowship was revolved around their common salvation and the truth that they were recipients of grace.

They were a people who were DEVOTED to generosity. They were people with generous hearts. They shared and had all things in common. They met each other's needs. The Bible says that they had "favor with all people" Could this be due to their generous hearts with one another and with outsiders as well? (The lost and unchurched) I believe it does.

The last thing I want to mention is that they were simply DEVOTED. (Vs. 42) They were faithful! Regardless of trials, trouble, persecution, disagreements or disruption, these folks were devoted to the Lord and to one another! PRAISE GOD! Let me pose a question. At SSBC, are we DEVOTED? Our devotion is to be first and foremost to the Lord; however, that commitment to the Lord will always manifest in devotion to one another! Let us always seek God in our devotion to Him and HIS local church.

I love you all!
Pastor Jack

"Without libraries what have we? We have no past and no future."

Be sure to thank these lovely ladies for their endless hours of time dedicated to our beautiful library. Their ministry leads us to knowledge, information and the history of our church along with a little adventure and relaxation. Barbara Cooper (Left) and Helen Cheek (Right) are more than happy to assist you in your literary needs. Just let them know what you are looking for and they will accommodate if at all possible. What a Blessing !!!

Baby Dedications

MOTHERS

The young mother set her foot on the path of life. "Is this the long way?" she asked. And the guide said "Yes and the way is hard. And you will be old before you reach the end of it. But the end will be better than the beginning."

But the young mother was happy, and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So she played with her children, she fed them and bathed them, and taught them how to tie their shoes and ride a bike and reminded them to feed the dog, and do their homework and brush their teeth. The sun shone on them and the young Mother cried, "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this." Then the nights came, and the storms, and the path was sometimes dark, and the children shook with fear and cold, and the mother drew them close and covered them with her arms, and the children said, "Mother, we are not afraid, for you are near, and no harm can come."

And the morning came, and there was a hill ahead, and the children climbed and grew weary, and the mother was weary. But at all times she said to the children, "A little patience and we are there." So the children climbed, and as they climbed they learned to weather the storms. And with this, she gave them strength to face the world. Year after year, she showed them compassion, understanding, hope, but most of all, unconditional love.

And when they reached the top they said, "Mother, we would not have done it without you." The days went on, and the weeks and the months and the years, and the mother grew old and she became little and bent. But her children were tall and strong, and walked with courage. And the mother, when she lay down at night, looked up at the stars and said, "This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned so much and are now passing these traits on to their children." And when the way became rough for her, they lifted her, and gave her their strength, just as she had given them hers. One day they came to a hill, and beyond the hill, they could see a shining road and golden gates flung wide. And mother said: "I have reached the end of my journey. And now I know the end is better than the beginning, for my children can walk with dignity and pride, with their heads held high, and so can their children after them."

And the children said, "You will always walk with us, Mother, even when you have gone through the gates." And they stood and watched her as she went on alone, and the gates closed after her. And they said: "We cannot see her, but she is with us still. A Mother like ours is more than a memory. She is a living presence." Your Mother is always with you. She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street, she's the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick and perfume that she wore, she's the cool hand on your brow when you're not feeling well, she's your breath in the air on a cold winter's day. She is the sound of the rain that lulls you to sleep, the colors of a rainbow, she is Christmas morning. Your Mother lives inside your laughter. And she's crystallized in every tear drop. A mother shows every emotion, happiness, sadness, fear, jealousy, love, hate, anger, helplessness, excitement, joy, sorrow, and all the while, hoping and praying you will only know the good feelings in life. She's the place you came from, your first home, and she's the map you follow with every step you take. She's your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, not space.....not even death!
